Totem Cube

Glimpse of the wild

Animals of the imagination inhabit each panel of this cube. A mysterious monkey points, a bird snaps a berry, a lemur crouches to leap, a ground bird listens for dinosaurs. Inlaid designs by artist Anne Warnock.

Cube is constructed of solid maple and veneer with your choice of walnut or cherry inlay. Beveled frames around artwork reflect light and cast shadows that create a sense of depth. Finished in clear lacquer or optional hand-rubbed, organic oil.

Makes a perfect end or side table as well as a sturdy storage unit and comfortable seat. A distinctive addition to any living room, bedroom, den, family room or home office. This piece is fitted with a mechanical closer to make it safe for children's use.
